Communication and Document Delivery – Agreement

Email Communications:

PURE intends to communicate periodically with its membership via email. These communications will include periodic member reports, as well as time-sensitive claims and loss control support in the build up to, and the aftermath of, a natural catastrophe. To enable this, please provide your email address below.

PURE will limit email communications with members and will never share your contact information with an outside organization.

eDelivery of Policy Documents and Bills:

At PURE, policy documents and bills are sent as secure electronic documents, but this can only happen with your written approval. PURE eDelivery is a more secure, timely, efficient, and environmentally friendly option than paper delivery, and we encourage all of our members to try the service - you can opt out at any time.

No fees or charges. There are no charges for document delivery, electronic or print.

Change preference at any time. You can change your document delivery preference and/or contact information at any time for any reason by contacting PURE Member Services at 1-888-813-PURE or edelivery@pureinsurance.com.

Copies on request. If you ever require a copy of a document, whether electronic or paper, you can request one at any time.

Minimal technical requirements. All you need to participate is a valid email address, a Windows or Macintosh computer, and Adobe Acrobat 7.0 or higher (a free download is available from www.adobe.com).
