

Communication and Document Delivery Agreement

Email Communications:

PURE Programs LLC* intends to communicate periodically via email with the policyholders of the Insurance Company identified on your policy's Declarations. These communications will include periodic reports as well as time-sensitive claims and loss control support in the build up to, and the aftermath of, a natural catastrophe. To enable this, please provide your email address below.

PURE Programs LLC will limit email communications with policyholders and will never share your contact information with an outside organization. Please provide your email address:

eDelivery of Policy Documents and Bills:

At PURE Programs LLC, policy documents and bills are sent as secure electronic documents, but this can only happen with your written approval. PURE Programs LLC eDelivery is a more secure, timely, efficient, and environmentally friendly option than paper delivery, and we encourage you to try the service - you can opt out at any time

No fees or charges. There are no charges for document delivery, electronic or print.

Change preference at any time. You can change your document delivery preference and/or contact information at any time for any reason by contacting PURE Programs LLC Services at 1-888-813-PURE or edelivery@pureinsurance.com.

Copies on request. If you ever require a copy of a document whether electronic or paper, you can request one at any time

Minimal technical requirements. All you need to participate is a valid email address, a Windows or Macintosh computer, and Adobe Acrobat 7.0 or higher (a free download is available from www.adobe.com).
