MEMBER STORY

A PURE member hired a crew to transport his Silverton yacht from his vacation home in North Carolina to his primary home in Florida. During the journey, rough waters caused the anchor to break free and damage the hull. The vessel began taking on water, forcing the crew to take the vessel's life boat to safety. They called the member, who reported the claim to PURE. His PURE Member Advocate® arranged for transportation to get the crew home safely that same day. After several days of searching for the yacht, authorities determined that it had sunk, and PURE compensated the member for the full value of his vessel. His Member Advocate was able to locate and purchase replacements of like kind and quality for almost all of the member's personal effects and had them delivered to his house.
